 REGISTRATION ACT
 INTERNAL SECURITY ACT OF 1950

Investigation of World Tourist, Incorporated, Los Angeles, California, reveals it began operation in that city in the spring of 1950. On December 16, 1950, Leon Bilmes and his wife, Rose, purchased the business and took over the fixtures and equipment of World Tourist, Incorporated, at 233 South Broadway, Los Angeles. Since December, 1950, Bilmes and his wife have conducted a wrapping and mailing service, doing business as Round the World Tourist. The business is operated on a cash basis and as part of its mailing service sends parcels and gift packages overseas with most of the shipments designated for persons in Russia and Israel. It has been reported that at the time Bilmes purchased the business he entered into an agreement which permitted him to use the name "Round the World Tourist" or any other name closely resembling "World Tourist," but not the name "World Tourist, Inc." or "World Tourist" alone.

California. The Customs Service made available one of these packets. A photostatic copy of the English translation from the Russian text is attached therewith. You will note the names and addresses of both the sender in this country and the addresses abroad appear on these receipts.

For your information a search in the Bureau indices (restricted to the state of the sender's residence) revealed there was no record or identifiable information with any of the senders of parcels shown on these receipts except the following:

[REDACTED]

In connection with Mrs. J. Grossman, 123 Locust Street, Winthrop, Massachusetts, a review of Bureau files reflects a case captioned, "Manya Grossman, aka., Mrs. Joseph Grossman, Security Matter - C." In 1948, Manya Grossman lived at 146 Oxford Street, Cambridge, Massachusetts. It is possible the subject of this file is identical to Grossman, the sender of a parcel to Russia.

The above is brought to your attention for your information and assistance and any action you deem advisable. The receipts in question may be of assistance to this Bureau in a particular case. However, it is not planned to procure these receipts on a regular basis.

GERALD BERNARD SPERLING

RE: EDWARD JAMES WEINSTEIN,
COMMONLY KNOWN AS JAMES WEINSTEIN

[REDACTED] was interviewed at the New York Office of the FBI during March, 1954, at which time she described EDWARD JAMES WEINSTEIN as follows:

After reviewing photographs in a Cornell yearbook, [REDACTED] identified WEINSTEIN as being in attendance at meetings of the Student Section of the CP at Cornell University. She stated she could not say that WEINSTEIN was a member of this group as she had not seen his CP membership card, but had assumed all were members because they attended meetings. She recalled that WEINSTEIN was a member of the class of 1949, and for a period, was a regular attendant at these meetings. She recalled that he was wealthy and ashamed of it.
She stated that after WEINSTEIN started to attend meetings, she had a recollection that he had been excused or exempt from attending meetings in the past.

A source advised on January 7 and 8, 1954, that he believed WEINSTEIN was a member of the CP while a student at Cornell University during 1948 and 1949, but was unable to recall
WEINSTEIN's attendance at any specific CP meetings.

The first source advised on October 20, 1954,

 WEINSTEIN questioned him as to his current activities in the Communist movement and as to his desire to join a CP group which WEINSTEIN was organizing in the Harlem section of New York City. b7D

The LYL has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

Assistant United States Attorney JOHN FOLEY, Southern District of New York, advised on April 17, 1951, that WEINSTEIN appeared before the Grand Jury, Southern District of New York, on that date. WEINSTEIN refused to testify as to ever having been or then being a member of the CP or any CP front organizations on constitutional grounds that his testimony would tend to incriminate him.

The first source advised on December 23, 1953, that WEINSTEIN was an organizer in the LYL during 1950 and 1951. The source stated WEINSTEIN attended LYL social events and dances and as recently as December 18, 1953, attended an LYL dance at Yugoslav Hall, New York City. The source added that WEINSTEIN was not officially listed at the LYL as an organizer, but in the source's opinion, acted as an organizer or an official.

The first source further advised during April and May, 1954, that WEINSTEIN was then active in starting a new LYL club on Stanton Street, New York City, New York. WEINSTEIN continued to be active in the LYL and attended street meetings in New York City on April 21, 1954. It was noted that a meeting of the LYL, scheduled to be held at a hall on Stanton Street on April 30, 1954, was held instead at WEINSTEIN's apartment on that date.

A third source advised in 1951 that EDWARD WEINSTEIN was a roommate of MAXWELL FINESTONE, the last man recruited by JULIUS ROSENBERG into his espionage apparatus. FINESTONE WEINSTEIN, known to be acquainted since their student days at Cornell University, 1949, resided together at 418 East Ninth Street, New York City, New York, during February, 1950. b1

JULIUS and ETHEL ROSENBERG were convicted in the United States District Court, Southern District of New York, on March 29, 1951, of conspiracy to commit espionage on behalf of the Soviet Union. The ROSENBERGs were sentenced to death on April 5, 1951.

JULIUS and ETHEL ROSENBERG were legally executed at Sing Sing Prison, Ossining, New York, on June 15, 1953.

JAMES WEINSTEIN advised Special Agents of the FBI on October 23, 1959, that he joined the LYL in 1950 and joined the CPUSA in 1953 and attended CP meetings on practically a monthly basis. WEINSTEIN stated that he withdrew from the CP and LYL in about 1956. He never formally withdrew from the CP and LYL but just became inactive.

The Fall, 1964 issue of "Studies On The Left" (SOTL) contains a statement of ownership dated October 1, 1964, which reflects that JAMES WEINSTEIN, 320 West 85th Street, New York City, New York, is President and an Editor of the corporation.

A characterization of the SOTL is contained in the appendix.

The January and February, 1966 issue of SOTL lists JAMES WEINSTEIN as Editor.

RE: DANNY BEAGLE

The January 11, 1963 issue of the "San Francisco Chronicle," a San Francisco daily newspaper, in an article entitled "Group Cited As Front For Communists," reported that Attorney General ROBERT F. KENNEDY asked the Subversive Activities Control Board (SACB) on January 10, 1963, to order Advance, a New York City group, to register as a Communist front organization. The article stated that in a petition presented to the SACB, KENNEDY charged that Advance, which described itself as an "organization of progressive youth," was organized by the CP in February, 1960. The petition also said that the purpose of the organization was aiding and supporting the CP by conducting picket lines, protest rallies, propaganda campaigns, and other activities.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

b7c

Public hearings on a petition by the United States Attorney General to the SACB for an order requiring Advance to register as required by the Subversive Activities Control Act of 1950, were held at 641 Washington Avenue, New York City, New York, during 1963.

On December 16, 1963, the respondent (Advance) called as a witness DANIEL S. BEAGLE, 12 West 95th Street, New York City, New York. BEAGLE stated he was a senior at Columbia University and was chairman of a political campus club known as "Action." BEAGLE discussed at length the platform and aims of Action. The counsel for the respondent stated that it was her purpose to show that the platform and aims of Action were the same as those of Advance.

BEAGLE stated his organization had joined with Advance in several protest meetings. He stated he had sponsored the appearance of MARVIN MARKMAN on the campus of Columbia as a speaker and that BEAGLE's organization, Action, had been active in publicizing the petition against Advance.

BEAGLE testified under cross-examination by the Government that he had attended an Executive Board meeting of Advance in January or February, 1963, and had known MARVIN MARKMAN for approximately two years. He testified that he was not aware of any Communist affiliation on the part of MARKMAN and other members of Advance.

On December 18, 1963, BEAGLE was recalled to the stand for additional cross-examination. He testified he had conferred with MARKMAN and another individual concerning what way BEAGLE's organization, Action, could assist Advance. BEAGLE stated that subsequently, Action conducted a number of meetings, published leaflets, and sponsored speeches in an attempt to persuade people that the Mc Carran Act should be repealed. BEAGLE testified that Action was not a CP front, that he was not a member of the CP, and had never been approached to join the CP. He added that he and his organization would defend the civil rights and right to free speech of neo-Nazi organizations as well as other organizations.

On November 19, 1963, the Attorney General of the United States petitioned the SACB to order ten individuals to register with him as members of the CPUSA, pursuant to the provisions of Section 8 of the Internal Security Act of 1950. MARVIN JOEL MARKMAN was one of those so listed.

On February 19, 1965, the seventh source furnished a copy of a mimeographed leaflet entitled "Memorandum To All Club Chairmen and Interested Persons" which announced that a Midwest meeting of the DCA would be held on February 20 and 21, 1965, at Madison, Wisconsin. The leaflet, among other things, indicated that all telephone calls in connection with same should be directed to TRENA TAYLOR, telephone number 608-257-5441.

On February 23, 1965, an eighth source reported on the Midwest Regional DCA Convention held at the University of Wisconsin, Memorial Union, Madison, Wisconsin, on February 20 and 21, 1965. This meeting was more or less chaired by ELIZABETH and EUGENE DENNIS while TRENA TAYLOR sat at the chairmen's table at the front of the meeting hall and while MICHAEL EISENSCHER seemed to be busily engaged in registering delegates at another table. The eighth source estimated that there were 21 delegates representing DCA clubs in Chicago, Illinois; St. Louis, Missouri; Iowa City, Iowa; Minneapolis, Minnesota; and Madison, Wisconsin.

The sixth source on November 18, 1964, reported that ELIZABETH DENNIS, her husband, EUGENE, and MICHAEL EISENSCHER were all CP members active in the DCA.

[REDACTED] b7C
On April 10, 1968, [REDACTED]
[REDACTED] San Francisco, California, advised that on April 9, 1968, Professor FRANZ SCHURMANN of UCB had returned to the United States from the Orient; and, during customs inspection, had had in his possession a documentary film which had been produced by the National Liberation Front of South Vietnam.

The April 16, 1968 issue of the "Daily Californian," a publication of the Associated Students of UCB, contained an article stating that SCHURMANN had recently visited North Vietnam and had conferred with top political leaders, including PHAM VAN DONG. The article indicated SCHURMANN was critical of the United States for its presence in South Vietnam.

The "Berkeley Daily Gazette," a Berkeley, California newspaper, issue of April 20, 1965, carried an article reflecting that SCHURMANN would be the featured speaker at a rally to be held at the UCB campus to protest United States actions in Vietnam.

STUDIES ON THE LEFT, INC.
ALSO KNOWN AS
STUDIES ON THE LEFT, (SOTL)

The "Wisconsin State Journal," a daily newspaper published at Madison, Wisconsin, on November 26, 1959, announced that a new scholarly magazine, "Studies on the Left," (SOTL) a historical review dedicated to the leftist point of view, edited by present and former graduate students at the University of Wisconsin (UW), but having no connection with the UW itself, would begin publication soon.

Records of the Wisconsin Secretary of State reflect SOTL was incorporated under law of Wisconsin July 16, 1959, as a non-stock, non-profit corporation with headquarters P.O. Box 2121, Madison, Wisconsin. The first issue contained a policy statement from the editors stating SOTL was primarily a magazine for national circulation designed to give younger men with radical views a place to voice their opinions.

Volume #3, Number 2 issue of SOTL, published in February, 1963, contained an announcement that effective March 1, 1963, the new mailing address of SOTL would be "Studies on the Left," Box 33, Planetarium Station, New York 24, New York.

A source advised on May 7, 1965, that SOTL has the mailing address Box 33, Planetarium Station, New York 24, New York, and that JAMES WEINSTEIN is President and MARTIN SKLAR is Secretary-Treasurer of SOTL.

JAMES WEINSTEIN advised SAs of the FBI on October 23, 1959 that he joined the Labor Youth League (LYL) in 1950, and joined the Communist Party, United States of America (CP, USA) in 1953, and attended CP meetings on practically a monthly basis. WEINSTEIN stated that he withdrew from the CP and LYL in about 1956. He never formally withdrew from the CP and LYL but just became inactive.

A second source advised in 1953 through 1955, that during this period MARTIN SKLAR, a UW student from New York City attended public meetings of the LYL and associated and roomed with leaders of the LYL at UW.

The LYL has been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

W.E.P. DU BOIS CLUBS OF AMERICA (DCA)

A source advised that on October 26-27, 1963, a conference of members of the Communist Party, USA (CP, USA), including national functionaries, met in Chicago, Illinois, for the purpose of setting in motion forces for the establishment of a new national Marxist-oriented youth organization which would hunt for the most peaceful transition to socialism. The delegates were told that it would be reasonable to assume that the young socialists attracted into this new organization would eventually pass into the CP itself.

A second source has advised that the founding convention for the new youth organization was held from June 19 - 21, 1964, at 150 Golden Gate Avenue, San Francisco, California, at which time, the name W.E.P. Du Bois Clubs of America (DCA) was adopted. Approximately 500 delegates from throughout the United States attended this convention.

The second source advised in September, 1966, that Mike Zagarell, CP, USA Youth Director, stated that in Negro communities the Party still supported the plan to build "left" socialist centers and to solidify the Party base through the DCA. This source also advised in September, 1966, that Daniel Rubin, CP, USA National Organizational Secretary, stated the Party believes the DCA should have a working class outlook and be a mass organization favorable to socialism, socialist countries and Marxism, and in April, 1967, Gus Hall, CP, USA, General Secretary, indicated that the DCA primary emphasis should be on developing mass resistance to the draft.

A third source advised in September, 1967, that Jarvis Tyner was elected Chairman of the DCA on September 10, 1967, near the conclusion of the Third National Convention of the DCA held in New York, New York, from September 8-10, 1967.

A fourth source advised on July 26, 1968, that Jarvis Tyner continues in his position as Chairman of the DCA.

This fourth source also advised on July 26, 1968, that Jarvis Tyner is a member of the National Committee of the CP, US.

This fourth source further advised on July 26, 1968, that the headquarters of the DCA is located at 34 West 17th Street, New York, New York.

ESPIONAGE - R

DATE: December 26, 1950

By letter dated December 12, 1950, to the Director, the Boston Office advised that [REDACTED] Deputy Collector of the Bureau of Customs, Treasury Department, Boston, Mass., had advised that the vessel S.S. PIONEER GEM had arrived in Boston in November 1950 and that [REDACTED] turned over to one of the Inspectors of the Bureau of Customs copies of communications which [REDACTED] stated were furnished to [REDACTED] said [REDACTED] received them from the [REDACTED] [REDACTED] told the Inspector that the [REDACTED] [REDACTED] stated they were investigating RAYMOND G. BROWN as a Communist Party courier and asked [REDACTED] to watch his mail and [REDACTED] cooperated with this Agency and as a result they furnished [REDACTED] with copies of their reports. b6

Included in the above-mentioned material were extracts from a letter addressed to RAYMOND GREENFIELD BROWN from his wife dated September 1950. The letter stated in part as follows:

"I've been feeling quite disheartened as it seems it really is happening here, City Council in Philadelphia was going to pass a law or something requiring all Communists and members of front organizations to register; other cities have passed similar things. Daddy heard people quoting Pegler, who has a column in the local paper that all 'Communists' should be hung and since my sources of information are limited to the local paper, radio and New Republic, I probably don't know 1/100th of what is transpiring. One Congressman has a Bill for concentration camps, and the FBI announced they are ready to arrest 12,000 when war starts and have another 40,000 under surveillance.

"There was also something in the paper that 40 men were removed from the America and a similar number from another ship. I got the message indirectly that TOM is constantly followed and that among other things they told TOM they know after whom the baby is named."

It is believed that the above-mentioned TOM is TOM BLACK and that the baby is the child of RAY BROWN and SARA HERSHER who is alleged to be named after V. I. LENIN.
